

“Palliative care isn’t about keeping you alive, it’s about keeping you living...”

“Those 11 weeks gave him quality time. He enjoyed day trips out, nights at home, and moments of normal life.

He was living.

The Hospice team managed his medication and symptoms in a way that made life possible, not just bearable.

It allowed me to be a wife, rather than a carer, and we will forever be grateful for the care and compassion that all of us received”

– Family member of Mayo Hospice service user

Advice on Making a Legacy Gift

Your solicitor will be able to give you professional advice based on your personal circumstances and answer any questions you might have.

If you have already made a Will but would like to leave a gift to support the Mayo Roscommon Hospice Foundation, you can do so by making a simple addition to your Will. Your solicitor will help you with any changes you wish to make.

If you do not have a solicitor of choice, contact the Law Society of Ireland for a list of solicitors in your area.

Leave a Lasting Legacy

A gift in your will can make a lasting difference.

Help to provide palliative care in our hospices and communities.

Together We Can Do So Much

Ways to Give to Charity in your Will

Your solicitor can advise you on the best option for you.

A Share of your Estate

Leave a percentage of your estate after family and loved ones have been provided for.

A Specific Gift

Leave a fixed amount of money or a particular asset.

A Residual Gift

Leave the remainder of your estate after other gifts and expenses have been paid.

Legacies to charity are free from inheritance tax.

By leaving a legacy to charity, not only are you making a huge difference to that organisation, you are also reducing the amount of tax payable on your estate.

Why choose us?

Please consider remembering Mayo Roscommon Hospice Foundation in your Will after providing for your loved ones. By doing so, you can help us continue to provide palliative care services free of charge in both our hospices and across the community.

We are also building our third hospice, the Sunflower Children's Hospice.

This will be the first children's hospice outside Dublin, a vital service that will make a difference in the lives of children and families for generations to come.

For over 30 years, the Foundation's Palliative Care Teams have supported more than 25,000 patients and their families, both in local communities and dedicated hospice facilities.

Services also include:

- ✓ palliative home care nursing & social work
- ✓ hospice care workers /sitter service
- ✓ extra home help
- ✓ counselling & psychological support
